Auditions Next Tuesday and Wednesday for Fall Play 'Father of the Bride'

Attention thespians! Auditions for the Fall play, "Father of the Bride" by Caroline Francke, are next week! "Father of the Bride" is the story about the chaos that ensues when a "simple" wedding becomes a production worthy of a Hollywood blockbuster!

Auditions are Tuesday, September 8 and Wednesday, September 9 from 3:30-6 p.m. in the auditorium. Callbacks will be Thursday, September 10. Students need to prepare a 1-minute comedic monologue. Show dates are Friday and Saturday, November 13 and 14, at 7:30 p.m. and Sunday, November 15 at 2:30 pm.

For more information, please contact Drama Director Ms. Anne Chriszt at achriszt@sja1890.org.

Name: Karli Dechant ’18

Fun Facts: This summer, Karli participated in the competitive summer camp Blue Lake Fine Arts Camp, based in Twin Lake, Mich., performing overseas with other talented teenagers in a camp orchestra.

Karli, who plays the viola, rehearsed with the group for six months prior to the summer tour, including 10 consecutive days of practicing right before the group boarded a plane for Europe.

"We had five stops with five different host families around Germany," Karli shared. "At every stop, we had at least two concerts, a symphonic show and an oratorio show, in conjunction with the Blue Lake International Choir."

She added, "In between rehearsals and our performances, we would often have a chance to be a tourist in the towns we were visiting."

In addition to playing the viola in the SJA Orchestra, Karli is a member of the book club Sursum Libros, the chess club, the Shakespeare Club, Jaguar Jottings and is an

Senior Shares Summer Adventure on Tall Ship

Senior Tori Roberts had the experience of a lifetime this summer, working on a tall ship as it sailed through the Great Lakes.

While browsing a College Counseling newsletter early last year, Tori came upon a leadership opportunity from the Cleveland Rotary Club called Project YESS (Youth Empowered to Succeed through Sailing).

The program allows area teenagers to learn life skills while training for a one week sailing trip on the Great Lakes. Project YESS helps youth ages 13-17 by providing direction, developing courage, confidence and community, and opening students' eyes to unique career opportunities that exist in the Great Lakes region. SPORTS

SOCCER
The team played its lone game of the week on Monday, August 31, when the Jaguars traveled to Avon to take on the Eagles. SJA fell behind 3-0 at halftime, but played a strong second half only allowing one goal to a talented Eagles team. Avon posted a 4-0 win to drop the Jaguars to an overall record of 2-2 this season. SJA hosts CVCA on Saturday, September 5, at noon at Mohican Park in a Varsity-only game.

VOLLEYBALL
Varsity split a pair of games this week. On Monday, August 31, the Jaguars beat Eastlake North to pick up their first win of the season. The win gave first-year Head Coach Kate Latkovic her first career Varsity coaching win. SJA then fell in four very competitive sets on Wednesday, September 2, against Beaumont. Senior Vikki Henderson had a strong performance for the Jaguars.

The JV and Freshman teams went undefeated this week, as both teams topped Eastlake North and Beaumont. Both teams currently sit at 3-1 on the season.

GOLF
Varsity traveled to Skyland golf course in Hinckley on Wednesday, September 2, for a quad match against Lutheran West, Padua and Laurel. The Jaguars finished in third place and were paced by senior Hannah Hill, who shot a 49.

JV continues its strong play with a record of 4-1 with mostly first-year golfers.

TENNIS
Varsity had a busy week, with a tournament on Saturday, August 29, and then three matches during the week. The Jaguars played well at the Triway Invitational as they finished third among a strong group of teams. No. 1 singles player Hannah Schuette ’17 finished third while the 2nd doubles team of Caroline Saracina ’17 and Maeve Chambers ’17. The Jaguars beat Solon 4-1 on Tuesday, September 1, then completed their week taking on Bay on Thursday, September 3.

CROSS COUNTRY
Several members of the cross country team competed at Gilmour Academy on Wednesday, September 2, in a two-mile dual race. Senior Monica Hahn was the first Jaguar across the line, in fourth place. While the Jaguars fell to the Lancers 29-30 overall, SJA athletes individually finished in 4th-10th place. Varsity runners compete for the first time Saturday, September 5, as they travel to North Canton for the Dave Clegg Invitational at Hoover High School.
