Team Enerjagers Named Midwest Winners in Lexus Eco Challenge!

Congratulations to the Team Enerjagers for being named a finalist in the Lexus Eco Challenge in the Air & Climate category. The students created 'Second Chance Candles,' to address the issue of the use of fossil fuels and the related production of carbon...
Student Spotlight

Name: Lizzie Lewandowski '18

Accomplishments: Lizzie Lewandowski’s submitted a design through Visual Arts teacher and Department Chair Mrs. Beth Pleban’s Graphic Design II class for the 2018 Tri-C High School Rock Off Art Contest.

"I consider myself to be creative and graphic design allows me to express my creativity. The shirt design goal was to create an image that resembled classic rock and roll. Even though finding the right inspiration for a design is difficult, it is rewarding," explained Lizzie.

Lizzie’s artwork will be recognized as the official 2018 Tri-C High School Rock Off t-shirt. She will be introduced on stage during the High School Rock Off Final Exam at the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame + Museum on Saturday, February 17.

Activities & Interests: Lizzie is in Crew, Model United Nations (UN) and Robotics team and she has won awards in both Model UN and Robotics. She has also attended Academy service.

Junior Parents: Letters for Kairos Retreatants Due Tuesday!
Help your daughter get the most out of her Kairos Retreat on February 1, 2 and 3 by praying for her and writing a letter expressing how much she means to you. Letters from other family members are welcomed as well.

Deadline for submitting letters is Tuesday, January 30. Email letters here or mail to CORE Ministry Department Chair Ms. Alison Barberic’s attention or drop off in the Main Office. If mailing or dropping off the letters, please make sure the outside of the envelope has your daughter’s first and last name on it and mark it with "Parent Letter."

Click here to read more on what should be included in the letter. Questions? Please contact CORE Ministry Department Chair Ms. Alison Barberic ‘01.

When: Thursday, February 15
Where: Auditorium
Time: 6:30 p.m.- 8 p.m.

Questions? Please contact College Counseling Department Chair Ms. Susan Emmerich.

Students March for Life
More than 40 students traveled to Washington, D.C. last week to walk with an estimated 100,000 others in the annual "March for Life."
Participants in the national rally joined together in prayer and unity. The students, members of Catholic Schools for Peace and Justice (CSPJ), were accompanied by CORE Ministry teachers Mr. Dan Guion, Mr. Dan True and College Counselor Ms. Maria Mueller.

"The March for Life allows people from across the nation with various backgrounds gather to be a voice for the voiceless and advocates for those who are the most forgotten and marginalized in our world today," voiced Mei Saurette ’21.

Pep Rally Recognizes Winter Sports
At this week’s Pep Rally, we recognized all of our students participating in winter sports, the arts and Enerjagers. Students were treated to a performance by the dance team!

Special congrats to the Class of 2019 who took home the spirit trophy! Click here for more photos from the pep rally. Good luck to our winter athletes, artists and Enerjagers for their next competition!
