“25 Under 35” Award Recognizes & Celebrates
Saint Joseph Academy’s Young Alumnae

Cleveland, OH – Social justice warriors, advocates for the underprivileged or overlooked, educators of the next generation and path-forgers in research; these are the women nominated for the 2019 “25 Under 35” alumnae award from Saint Joseph Academy for their impact on their communities.

The “25 Under 35” distinction was established in 2015 as part of Saint Joseph Academy’s yearlong 125th birthday celebration. The young alumnae who are presented with this honor have been recognized as going above and beyond in personal and professional endeavors since graduation. Their compassionate leadership, service in a global society, overall achievements and spirituality have regarded them as women who continue to live the mission of Saint Joseph Academy and charism of the Sisters of the Congregation of St. Joseph, the Academy’s founding sponsors and spiritual leaders. These distinguished women are making a positive impact in the world through their roles as entrepreneurs, educators, doctors, lawyers and a variety of other professions.

The awards ceremony takes place on Saturday, June 16, 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. It will be held at Saint Joseph Academy, located in Cleveland’s West Park Neighborhood.
